

Owners Will Aid Move to Widen North Front St.

Majority of Property Owners Between Fair and Green Streets Willing to Deed Part of Sidewalk to City for Improvement—Garden Club's Plans for Cornell Park Approved.

The widening of North Front street and the adoption of the plan for Cornell Park which had been prepared by the Garden Club were among the important matters brought to the attention of the board of public works at the regular monthly meeting held Tuesday evening at the city hall. The question of widening North Front street was laid over until the next meeting. The plan for the park was unanimously approved and will be put into effect by the park committee of the board.

Some time ago the park committee met with a committee from the Garden Club and visited Cornell Park to discuss the best plan to use in beautifying the park which is located on Wurts street. Since then the Garden Club has spent considerable time on the question and Tuesday evening Dr. George F. Chandler, chairman of the park committee of the board of public works, submitted a map that had been prepared by the Garden Club outlining what kind of shrubbery and plants were to be used and where located in the park. The plan was carefully considered by the board and met with unanimous approval.

Widen North Front Street.
E. F. Flanagan, president of the Uptown Business Men's Association, sent in a communication to the board under date of April, enclosing a petition from the majority of the property owners on North Front street, between Fair and Green streets, asking that North Front street be widened and stating that in order to have the street widened they were willing to deed to the city part of the present sidewalk.

Since the petition was filed with the board of public works in that street has been completed. After discussing the question the board decided to defer any action on the matter until the next meeting.

Install Pump Without Permission.
It was brought to the attention of the board by one of the commissioners that the Newburgh Gas & Oil Company, which has taken over the Cressler property on Broadway opposite the state armory, had "defied" the city authorities in installing a curb pump without permission.

The matter was referred to the corporation counsel to take such action as may be necessary.

Forest Plans Improvements.
The Forest Packing Company has recently acquired the land abutting on West Strand in the rear of the packing plant property on Abel street and Tuesday evening the Ulster & Delaware railroad sent in a request to the board that permission be granted the railroad to extend a railroad switch across West Strand into the Forest property.

The proposed switch would be an extension of the present railroad switch at the coal trestle. It was stated that the Forest Company plans to have the siding used for switching cattle cars into the plant where the cattle will be unloaded and transferred to the slaughter house at the top of the hill by a ramp.

The board unanimously granted the requested permission.

Plan for Pageant.
Commissioner Fessenden brought up the matter of placing Kierstedt street, which leads to the Esopus lowlands where the Pageant will be held on June 30, in a passable condition for the immense traffic it will carry on Pageant Day. While the deed to that street has been secured as yet, and the board decided to defer any action until later when a special meeting will be held.

More Street Lights.
Commissioner Fessenden of the lighting committee reported favorably on installing an incandescent light on Van Deusen avenue and two incandescent lights on Progress street. The report was adopted.

South Wall Street Detachment.
A petition was read from residents of South Wall street asking that something be done toward placing the street in better condition. The petition was referred to the street committee and the clerk of the board was directed to write the property owners to the effect that if they had their properties curbed and returned the board would be more likely to place the street in shape.

Make City Responsible.
Schultz & Bocar, agents for the Federal Casualty Company, sent in a communication that the insurance company held the board liable for the breaking of the plate glass windows in the stores of North Front street at 46 North Front street and the C. & C. Tire & Repair Company at 35 North Front street. The communication stated that while the city was responsible for the damage, the insurance company would not pay for the cost of replacing the windows.

The communication was referred to the corporation counsel Harry H. Fleming.

$50,000 Damage Suit on Trial

New Jersey Clergyman Sues Edward J. Cochrane of Kingston, Alleging Latter Was Cause of Auto Accident Which Has Disabled Him.

An action for $50,000 damages for personal injuries sustained in a motor car collision on June 14, 1926, south of Cornwall village is on trial in the Supreme court before Judge Rosch. The Rev. Charles A. Ross of Rutherford, N. J., seeks to recover for injuries sustained when he alleges a Mack motor truck of Edward J. Cochrane of this city collided with his Buick coupe.

It is alleged by the plaintiff that while he and his wife were proceeding south from Newburgh between Cornwall and West Point over the main highway, their car was struck by the truck of defendant which they allege skidded on the wet roadway and crashed into their Buick car, demolishing it and throwing both Mr. and Mrs. Ross to the roadway. Mr. Ross sustained serious injuries and after a long time in the Newburgh hospital recovered but now has lost the use of his left arm.

The accident happened near Bay View avenue, south of Cornwall. Plaintiff was proceeding toward his home and the truck was coming north.

He claims the truck came around a slight curve, skidded around and the rear end swerved into the Buick causing the accident, while he was on his right side of the road. It was raining at the time. Mrs. Ross was also injured and she is also suing for damages in another action now on the calendar.

Wife Saw Truck Skid.
Mrs. Ross on the stand testified that she noticed the truck when the rear end skidded over to its left and a moment before the crash which threw both her and her husband out of their car. She was in an unconscious condition and knew little of what happened immediately after the accident. The contact of the truck with the Buick car was on its left side just back of the driver's seat.

Mr. Kent, who resides near the scene, was trimming a hedge along the road and heard the crash. He looked and saw the Buick standing on end and then topple over to the side of the road to the west. The truck came to a stop some thirty feet beyond with its front headed toward the west or left of the road as it was being operated.

The accident happened just beyond the Antler's Hotel. Defendant denies that the truck was negligently operated and claims the Buick car of plaintiff was at fault. Statements of witnesses after the accident which it is alleged Mrs. Ross made to the effect that the Buick car skidded and the driver of the truck could not avoid the accident, were denied by Mrs. Ross on the stand.

Andrew J. Cook appears for plaintiff and Ireland & Caverly are attorneys for defendant with Frank W. Brooks of counsel.

CAR OVER EMBANKMENT AT "DEAD MAN'S CURVE"
A sedan car was driven off the road Sunday and down the steep embankment east of Boiceville on what is known as "dead man's curve." Although it went down a twenty foot embankment the car was but little damaged and none of the occupants was injured. The fence supported by concrete posts around the Ashokan reservoir at the foot of the embankment prevented the car from turning over. State troopers were notified and policed the turn, keeping traffic moving and preventing further accidents.

Killed in Fall.
Catskill, N. Y., June 1 (AP).—Mrs. Delia Dodge, 90 years of age, was killed by a fall from a second story window at her home today. She lived alone, and it is believed that she was seized with dizziness while looking out of the window.

WINS WAGER AND SPENDS NIGHT IN JAIL.
Troy, N. Y., June 1 (AP).—John Miller, 42, of Williamstown, Mass., last night rode from Williamstown to Troy on the pilot of a giant locomotive drawing the "Minute Man" Boston and Maine flyer, thereby winning a five dollar wager.

But instead of a committee to rehabilitate him on his death-defying stunt, Miller was met by a committee of one in the person of Special Officer Daniel Lyons of the Troy station force. The consequence was that Miller spent the night in the police station to await a hearing today on a charge of illegal train riding.

Inquests in Two Auto Damage Suits

Juries in Supreme Court Award Damages in Cases Which Were Not Defended—Other Cases Settled.

In the Supreme court Tuesday two additional cases were announced settled and there were two inquests in actions where no defense was offered.

An action for property damages brought by Charles Maiuri against the Audubon Taxi Corporation was settled.

An action for goods sold and delivered and for money loaned brought by Frank C. Eaton, as executor, etc., of W. Kelly Shook, deceased, against Caroline E. Griswold was also settled.

No. 363, Zara D. Burger against Ernest Markie, an ejection action, was put over the term on payment of witness fees by defendant.

An inquest was taken in a negligence action brought by the Kingston-Elbow Hill Bus Corporation against Ellison North. Russell Merriweather, vice-president of the corporation, testified that in August, 1926, while his bus was proceeding west near Stony Hollow a car driven by the defendant attempted to cut in and pass an approaching truck and ran head on in the bus. He claimed damages amounting to $239.53 and the jury awarded that sum in their verdict. John W. Eckert appeared for the plaintiff.

The second inquest was also the outcome of an automobile accident. J. Arthur Minard of Plattkill asked damages to his Reo truck which he claimed was damaged by a Peerless car driven by Carl A. Leins. He claimed that while he was proceeding toward Newburgh with a load of produce the defendant's car came around a turn on the left of the road and struck the Reo truck, causing the damage. The accident happened on August 10, 1926. By reason of the accident his car was laid up for 17 days while repairs were made and he hired a car to replace it. The jury awarded a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $575. John W. Eckert appeared for the plaintiff.

First Party of Refugees Return
Relief Workers Face Problem of Giving Flood Victims New Start in Life—Planters Plan to Start Late Crops.

New Orleans, La., June 1 (AP).—With the flood menace concentrated in a comparatively small area in the south central part of the state, relief workers today turned their attention to the problem of getting the refugees back to their lands and giving them a new start in life.

Plans were made at the Baton Rouge camp yesterday to start a first party of 75 men back into the Bayou Des Glaises area, which is slowly emerging from the murky covering of water which has hidden it for a month. The women and children were to remain at the camp until the men had provided a place for them. The first party will be sent to the region around Simmesport, which got comparatively little water from the Bayou Des Glaises breaks.

At Morgan City, the residents who have remained in the face of the predicted flood were raising their furniture a little higher on scaffolds, owing to a warning from the weather bureau here yesterday that the waters would rise from 2.3 to 3.5 feet above their present levels before the crest passed the city. In the upper Tensas basin the water was falling slowly and planters were preparing to start late crops as soon as the slimy mud covering the land has dried sufficiently for them to start work.

The situation on the lower river was unchanged. The gauge at New Orleans registered a further drop of 2, bringing the stage to 18.5, the lowest it has been for several months and only 1.3 feet above flood stage.

ACTRESS HAS LITTLE CHANCE FOR RECOVERY
Hollywood, Cal., June 1 (AP).—Irene Goodall, an actress, also known as Irene Fuller, who took poison after leaving a note warning friends not to reveal her name, has been identified by Ray Howard, a film actor, as Mary Lyne, a former Zefferd Police girl. She sprang into the news spotlight five years ago when she sued Gordon C. Thorne, member of a prominent Chicago family, for breach of promise.

More recently Miss Goodall played parts in "The Miracle" and other Morris Kent productions. Physicians at the hospital where the actress was taken said she had little chance for recovery.

As Auto Crash.
Albert Barton of No. 104 Albany avenue and Charles Ricks of 138 Elmwood street reported to the police Tuesday evening that their cars had been in collision at Elmwood street and Smith avenue, and that both cars had been damaged. No one was injured.

Child Taken by Dog.
Mrs. Bailey of 64 O'Neil street reported to the police Tuesday that her child had been bitten by a strange bull dog. It required eight stitches to close the wound.

Pageant to Show Arrival of French Traders at Esopus

Indians and Dutch Naturally Start Off Big Show Here on June 30, But Other Historical Scenes Are to Be Shown Also—French Arrival Depicted.

No one who can get there is going to miss seeing the big Pageant which is to take place at the Fair Grounds on Manor avenue under the auspices of the Ulster County Farm and Home Bureau and the Kingston Chamber of Commerce on June 30, and everyone who is to take part in it is determined to make this Pageant the greatest that has ever taken place in the state. A large number of reservations for seats have been received not only from people in this state but from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and many cities. One day last week an application was received from Washington for ten seats.

While the papers all over the world are filled daily reciting the wonderful receptions being tendered to that glorious specimen of American manhood, Captain Charles Lindbergh, it begins to look as if a large part of their space would be set aside describing the wonders and beauties of this big Pageant.

Some of the larger New York newspapers have sent their representatives here to gather material for their papers. Former Chandler, who holds a responsible position with one of the largest motion picture producers in the country, is besieged with inquiries as to the time and place for holding the Pageant and they all seem to be anxious to have the sole right of filming it. The probabilities are that many pictures will be taken of it and that it will be shown on the screen in not only every movie house in this country but throughout the world.

Scenes and Events.
As almost everyone knows, the Pageant will depict the scenes and important events that have taken place in this country from the time the Indians were the sole inhabitants down to and including the inauguration of Governor George Clinton. The lives and customs of the Indians and the coming of the Dutch traders have been described in the daily papers. The next important event was the arrival of the French traders. In this scene you may see off the fields from the north Indian hunters, bearing the monarch of the forest with a fatal arrow still quivering in his side. From the south come other hunters, bearing on poles dozens of wild turkey and other game probably snared on the hillsides. Some boys, quite as proud as their fathers, come back to camp with some rabbits they have captured with their new bows and arrows. Then the spectators will watch for the canoes of fishermen who come paddling swiftly and accurately down the creek, make their landings, distribute their catch to the squaws, and haul their canoes ashore for perhaps needed repairs. Meanwhile the women have built a big cooking fire, slung a kettle, brought water from the stream, and are already to start the preparation of one of their famous puppy dog stews. Two or three old mother dogs take unusual interest in this proceeding.

Arrival of French Traders.
Away to the north some more swift runners come along hallooing to the village, joyously announcing the arrival of more pale faced visitors. All the inhabitants of the Indian village turn out as before to welcome strangers. These prove to be French traders who with more dispatch than the Dutchmen advance into the village and immediately begin exchanging beads, hatchets and trinkets for the valuable furs and the coveted grains of the Indians. The Frenchmen carry their prized furs down to their boats with rolicking glee and shoving off into the stream sail down the river, singing the famous old chanson that has been heard on all American rivers since the first Frenchman paddled our streams.

No Objection to Mayor's Salary

No One Appeared to Protest at Public Hearing on Local Law Fixing Salary of Mayor at $5,000 Per Annum—Public Not Present at Hearing.

That there is no objection to Local Law No. 1 of 1927, which fixes the salary of the mayor of Kingston at $5,000 per annum, effective January 1, 1928, was shown at the public hearing on the local law held Tuesday evening at the city hall by Mayor E. J. Dempsey. The only others present at the hearing were President A. Ray Everett of the common council, Alderman Molyneux, City Clerk A. A. Styles and a Freeman reporter.

The local law was recently unanimously adopted by the common council and under the provisions of the Home Rule bill it was necessary for the mayor to hold a public hearing. As there has been no objection registered against the local law, it is expected that Mayor Dempsey will sign it.

DEPUTY SHERIFF WELLS' CAR BECOMES AFIRE
Tuesday morning while Deputy Sheriff P. W. Wells, of Stone Ridge, was on his way to the garage to put gasoline in his Ford coupe preparatory to coming to Kingston, where he is court officer at the May term of the Supreme court, the gas line sprung a leak and the car burst in flames. Mr. Wells narrowly escaped being burned by the blaze and in getting from his car his clothing caught fire. William Brisea, who conducts an automobile supply place in Stone Ridge, secured a fire extinguisher and extinguished the flames before much damage had been done. The ignition wires were burned away and slight damage done to the body of the car.

Lindbergh Will Land At Washington First

Invitation of President Coolidge to Return Immediately to National Capital Aboard the Cruiser Memphis Accepted With Pleasure—May Leave for New York After Day's Reception—Plans in New York Progressing.

Washington, June 1 (AP).—Captain Charles A. Lindbergh today accepted the invitation of President Coolidge to return immediately to Washington aboard the cruiser Memphis.

The appearance of Lindbergh was wired today to the White House and it was announced that the New York to Paris flier was expected to be home again by Saturday, June 11. It is planned to have the Memphis come direct to Washington, where the flier will be received officially on behalf of the nation.

The message from Lindbergh was sent through Frederick Sterling, of the American Embassy staff in London. It said that the invitation of President Coolidge had been handed to Lindbergh and that he accepted "with pleasure."

Secretary Davis, chairman of President Coolidge's cabinet committee to welcome Lindbergh, said it was expected that the reception in the Capital would take only one day and that immediately afterwards Lindbergh would leave for New York, probably by airplane.

National Celebration.
The desire to have the flier come direct to Washington was prompted by the thought of making his arrival a national celebration held in the Capital of the nation, thus typifying a welcome by all the people, and by the hope of having the celebration include the citation of the plucky youth by President Coolidge with the distinguished flying cross.

If Lindbergh arrived after June 13, the citation would be made at the summer White House in the Black Hills, but President Coolidge prefers to honor the flier in Washington and have him as his guest at the presidential residence on Du Pont Circle.

The Navy Department already had placed at Lindbergh's disposal the destroyer Breck and there had been talk of the flier sailing for New York aboard the George Washington, a passenger ship. The Memphis, however, is one of the fastest naval vessels afloat and inasmuch as it is now in European waters would be able to land Lindbergh in Washington late Saturday, June 11, or early Sunday. If the Memphis arrived too late Saturday to permit President Coolidge to receive him, Lindbergh would be decorated on June 13, a few hours before the President left Washington for the west.

Program Unsettled.
New York June 1 (AP).—The invitation of the cabinet committee to Captain Charles A. Lindbergh to proceed direct to Washington from Europe today left New York's elaborate reception in a somewhat unsettled state.

Mayor Walker in a statement termed the committee's action "in contradiction to every tradition" but said New York's eight million people would nevertheless "stand by, just as proud of this American boy, and cheer with as wide acclaim as if he had been allowed to follow the traditional course and enter through the gateway of America, the port of New York."

"We love him as much for what he did in his absence as we could with his presence," said Mayor Walker. "In all our utter disappointment, we pray, 'God bless and keep Lindbergh!'"

Five-Day Celebration.
Grover Whalen, chairman of the mayor's official reception committee, however, said plans for New York's welcome and progressed to such a point that it would not be feasible to discontinue them now. He said his committee would go ahead with its arrangements.

A five-day celebration is planned by the mayor's committee as a welcome to Lindbergh. This was to have started with the traditional ride up the bay, the parade through the lower Broadway canyon and a reception at city hall. Mrs. Ernestine Lindbergh, the flier's mother, was to be guest of Mrs. Walker. How much of the proposed celebration will have to be eliminated is not known.

Silver Jubilee Of Franklin Car

Syracuse, N. Y., June 1.—Twenty-five years ago tomorrow, on June 2, 1902, the first Franklin automobile was sold, the buyer being S. G. Averell of New York city. This first production of the air-cooled Franklin was also the start of four-cylinder construction, all other cars up to that time being of the one or two cylinder type.

In the original Franklin the cylinders were set crosswise of the chassis at the front. The motor was equipped with horizontal fins and was dependent upon the forward motion of the car for the flow of cooling air across the fins.

It was the invention of John Wilkinson, a mechanical engineer engaged in the bicycle business who had worked for four years perfecting what, at that time, was the most highly-developed power plant in the automobile industry. Wilkinson's experimental model was started in 1897, giving the present-day Franklin rank as one of the oldest automobiles in the history of the industry.

Chance Ride Started Business.

H. H. Franklin, then treasurer of the H. H. Franklin Manufacturing Company, a firm organized for the production of die-castings, became acquainted with Mr. Wilkinson's work through a chance ride in the experimental car and immediately saw the possibilities of a light-weight, air-cooled automobile of quality make. Mr. Franklin interested his friends and raised sufficient funds to start production of the automobile by his own company. He was so certain of its success that he borrowed the money for his personal investment in the venture.

It was agreed that Mr. Wilkinson should abandon his previous experimental plans and start anew. Accordingly in July, 1901, Mr. Wilkinson was retained by H. H. Franklin Manufacturing Company and began designing the car that was to be put out under the Franklin name. The first road test was run October 1 of the same year, and in March, 1902, was begun work on the first production car that was later sold to Mr. Averell.

The original model was a roadster, seating two passengers and its appearance on the streets of Syracuse was heralded as marking a new era in transportation.

A hearty reception was accorded the Franklin and in 1905 a six-cylinder car of the same make was perfected. This car was tested around Syracuse and was publicly announced at the Automobile Show in New York city in 1906. At this time other new features which have since been adopted by other manufacturers but which were developed by Franklin, including drive through the springs and the use of a transmission brake, were also shown.

The present Syracuse factory buildings, which envelop the original plant, cover 31 acres of floor space. The company is capitalized at $13,000,000 and the production capacity of the manufacturing plant is approximately 12,000 cars a year. The original capitalization when the company was organized to manufacture motor cars was $250,000 and in the first year of production, the total output was thirteen cars.

Today there are Franklin dealers in every city and town of importance in the country and the development of the use of the Franklin in foreign countries is showing a large increase.

The growth of the organization has been accomplished without reorganization and without change in management from its inception to its present position.

Cotton on Throne

"Cotton is King" is an expression used by James H. Hammond, in the senate in March, 1858. The figure of speech means that so important is the state of the cotton industry that its condition rules the destiny of men connected with it.

Yes, that's my name—Peter Schuyler Victor. Glad to meet you, Mr. Smoker. Put her there

What! You've already met some of my cousins and uncles? But that's not surprising—we're quite a large family, we Peter Schuylers—settled in this part of the country forty-two years ago

And you know my big brother—Peter Schuyler Perfecto. Yes, just my shape—only larger. Then you and I are already old friends

Havana filler? Sure—100 per cent

Well, since you ask, I'll admit it—I'm good. Really, you know, the men who make me, simply don't know how to roll a poor cigar

Mild, mellow flavor? Yes, that's me all over

High-priced? Whatever put that into your head? I'm yours for only ten cents.

Sure thing—glad to see more of you! Meet me at your favorite cigar store tonight.

Unavoidable Waste

At least $500,000 a year goes down the drains of London in the form of soap. Fat or oil used in making soap is worth something like 10 cents a pound, and owing to the fact that London's water is hard, each thousand gallons of it wastes 18 pounds of soap fat. It would not pay to attempt to recover this fat from sewage, yet there is no other way of saving it.

An easy rule for computing the approximate weight in relation to height is given in an article in Liberty. Multiply the number of inches over five feet by five and a half. Add 100 pounds. A variation of 10 pounds above or below may be chosen as normal weight.

Confirms Award For Railroad

Gloversville, N. Y., June 1 (AP).—The Supreme Court Justice Crapier today handed down a decision confirming the award of $1,443,128 made by the special commission in condemnation in behalf of the Glens, Johnstown and Gloversville Railroad Company and the New York Trust Company as compensation for portions of railroad property needed by the board of Hudson river regulating district for construction of the Sacandaga reservoir above the dam to be built at Conklingville.

Justice Crapier's decision also allows the railroad company entire costs of the original trial before Justice Whitman, in January, 1926, also the costs before the condemnation commission and an extra allowance of five per cent on the entire award, about $72,000. The additional allowance and costs thus awarded the railroad company amounts to nearly $100,000.

The extra award of five per cent was granted because of the unusual amount of expert testimony required.

Record Herds and Cows in Ulster

Members of the Ulster County Farm Bureau Dairy Improvement Association and Club along with several friends met for a business session at the Tamney Hotel in New Paltz on Friday evening, May 27. Following a fine dinner served by the hotel management an interesting session discussing herd records and records of the individual animals was held. Professor W. I. Crandell of Cornell led the discussion. Professor Crandell had spent several days previous to the meeting studying the records of each member so was thoroughly familiar with each. He also gave many valuable suggestions on feeding and care of the stock.

During the meeting announcement was made of the two high herds and the five high individual animals in the association. The highest herd average was maintained by the herd of the Shawangunk Valley Stock Farm, Ben. Decker, manager, with 12,242 pounds of milk and 410 pounds of fat for 12 months. Second highest was the herd of Millard Davis, president of the Farm Bureau, with a herd average of 10,407 pounds milk, 369 pounds fat for 12 months. Of the five highest cows Mr. Decker produced three of them, the highest of all being Pauline with 18,940 pounds milk, 178 pounds butter fat. Big Blue, a grade Holstein owned by Pratt Boice of Kingston, came in second with 14,869 pounds of milk, 544 of butter fat.

Professor Crandell's interesting talk came to a close at a late hour with all present well pleased that they had attended.

MANY ATTEND INITIATION AT PLATTEKILL GRANGE.

One hundred and twenty-five patrons responded to roll call at Plattekill Grange, No. 923, on Saturday evening, May 28, and the added floor space afforded by the new addition was much appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. Richards and Worthy Orange County Deputy Baker and wife were present from Scarsville Grange. Worthy Deputy Baker very cleverly concealed his identity until the close of the meeting when he revealed it in his remarks commending as he did the degree work he had witnessed.

A short patriotic program was rendered, consisting of the flag salute, songs and readings. The refreshment committee served ice cream, cake and coffee.

Notice was given of the quarterly meeting of Ulster County Pomona Grange to be held at Ashbury on June 3. Mrs. Charles Jenkins, Charles Everett and Edward Harney were appointed as delegates.

THE WOLVES

It was very wild and lonely in the dark woods where Johnnie Wolf and his family lived.

But he was a home body and liked to be alone with his family.

The people in the nearest village had heard that a family of wolves lived in the forest, so do you blame them for not going there?

They used to be a little afraid that the wolves would plunder their village at night.

They were afraid of their sheep.

Newcomers to the village used to be particularly frightened that this might happen.

They would be assured by the villagers that such a thing never had happened, and yet all were afraid of this.

The wolves were perfectly satisfied with the woods and had no desire to leave.

They could get all they wanted to eat there, and really they thought that people were not at all nice.

They were afraid of them.

Some of their relatives who had ventured for sheep at other places had met with sad ends.

Then Johnnie Wolf had told the others how his great-aunt had been taken by some traveling men and sent to spend the rest of her life in a zoo.

They all dreaded a similar fate for themselves, and so they really were very much afraid of people.

Now one of the newcomers in the village said that he didn't believe that there were wolves in the woods.

He said that he had never heard of wolves living near a village and not going to it at night to steal.

You see, he didn't know the reason the wolves had for not going to the village.

He then decided that he would go and find out for himself.

The people all told him how foolish he was, but he insisted, and off he went.

He took a bag with food in it. He meant to fling it at any wolves he might see so they would not touch him.

But he really didn't think that he would see any.

He had not gone very far, however, when he heard really frightful sounds.

It was merely that the wolves were having a little chat together, but to the man it sounded very fearful, and he wished with all his soul that he had taken the advice of the people in the village.

The wolves suddenly spied him.

They all put their paws over their eyes so they could see the intruder better.

The man looked at them with a fixed gaze, by which wild animals are always supposed to be fascinated.

Then he dropped his bag of food and fled through the woods to the village, shouting:

"There are wolves!"

And the wolves howled to themselves happily, and said to one another:

"Saved once again from a zoo and a captive life."

At Last

"Tom," said his long-suffering sweetheart, "have you secured a position yet?"

"No," said the college graduate. "I'm still waiting for something to turn up."

"Well, here it is," she snapped, turning up her nose at him. "It's a good look at it and clear out."

Real Jump

"It says here," remarked Mrs. Grinch that a kangaroo can jump 80 feet."

"That's nothing," growled her husband. "I jumped 100 feet today when a blundering motorist tooted his horn just behind me as I started to cross the street."

Becoming Faces

Six-year-old Betty sat in a car with her mother and greatly admired two bright, pretty high school girls sitting near her, laughing and chatting.

Turning to her mother, Betty remarked: "Mother, aren't those girls' faces becoming to them?"

GAS BUGGIES—Try, Try Again.

UNDER THE PRETEXT OF RETURNING BORROWED TOOLS, BOSCO AND BEEBE, THE TWO NEIGHBORS WHO COVET HEM'S COMPRESSED AIR CAR CALLED TODAY IN SEARCH OF MORE EXACT INFORMATION TO CONFIRM THEIR SUSPICIONS THAT IT IS A COPY OF THE CAR THEY INVENTED IN THEIR IMAGINATION.

SPEAKING OF THE HIGH COST OF LIVING, REMINDS ME I SAW AN ARTICLE IN THE PAPER BY A PROFESSOR SCHWARZ WHO PREDICTED THE DAY WAS COMING WHEN WE WOULD HAVE TO BUY GAS FOR OUR AUTOMOBILES. RUN ON THEIR REPUTATION, I SUPPOSE... OR... HA HA... ON AIR?

NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE THESE DAYS. SCIENCE IS MAKING SUCH STRIDES

ISN'T BOSCO DROLL, HEM? IMAGINE A CAR RUNNING ON AIR... HA HA... I CAN'T CONCEIVE OF SUCH A THING. EVEN IF SUCH A CAR WERE INVENTED, THE BIG GASOLINE COMPANIES WOULD SOON PUT A STOP TO IT. DON'T YOU THINK SO?

OH, I DON'T KNOW WE HAVE CARS... TODAY... THAT RUN ON AIR... IN THE TIRES.

IMAGINE THE NERVE OF THOSE TWO GOSSIPS SITTING THERE AND GIVING US THE THIRD DEGREE. WELL... ALL THE INFORMATION THEY GOT OUT OF ME COULD BE PRINTED ON A POSTAGE STAMP. BUT DO YOU REALIZE HOW NEAR YOU CAME TO SPILLING THE BEANS?

LISTEN! YOU DIDN'T HAVE TO KEEP KICKING ME ON THE SHINS. DON'T YOU SPOSE I WAS WISE TO THEM! DIDN'T YOU TUMBLE TO MY GAME? I'D PRETEND I WAS GOING TO TALK AND THEN END UP IN A WISE-CRACK, JUST TO SEE THEIR FACES FALL.

EVERY TIME WE'D GET THEM STEAMED UP TO THE POINT WHERE HE WAS ALL SET TO TELL US ABOUT THE CAR, AMYD, GIVE HIM THE HIGH-SIGN TO RING OFF. IF WE COULD GET HIM ALONE, HE'D SHOOT THE WORKS.

AMY KNEW WHAT WE WERE AFTER. SHE'S NO FOOL. BOSCO, WELL, I'VE GOT ANOTHER SCHEME TOMORROW WHEN HE'S WORKING ON HIS INVENTION; YOU BLO OVER TO THE GARAGE THEN I'LL CALL HIM ON THE PHONE WHEN HE GOES IN TO ANSWER YOU CAN SEE HOW IT WORKS.

In Ring Again

Alvaro Obregon (above) former revolutionary leader and president of Mexico, is again a candidate for the office. He holds that it is necessary for him to seek an additional term to carry out policies begun in his administration and continued by the incumbent, Plutarco Calles. The latter is barred by law from succeeding himself.

Insects Superior to Men in Various Ways

The naturalist knows that the insect is, far and away, the strongest of organic creatures in proportion to its size, but some of the facts would probably astonish the ordinary person.

A scab or burying beetle will, in about an hour, completely bury a dead vole, a task equivalent to that of a man burying an elephant, for if we put the matter to careful calculation, the comparison is not wide of the mark. A horse of average power can pull a load of two or more tons, or, roughly, five times its weight, whereas a bee will pull a load twenty times, some flies a hundred, some beetles a thousand times their weights. I have watched a minute spider suspending by a thread, for steady purposes against a wind, a heavy twig out of all proportion to its size and apparent strength—an act equal to that of a man hauling up, with one hand, a full-sized scaffold pole. And any day in the garden one may make observations to parallel such examples.

Insects will penetrate or bore through things that man could never hope to pierce or break without blasting powder. How can they do it, and what is the secret of their marvelous powers?

The answer is that these things are possible to them because of their extraordinarily complex system of striped muscle working within the intensely tough and hard chitinous armor of their coats. This not only gives them tremendous powers of muscle contraction, the like of which, if possible, would rupture and split the friable muscle of man as with an explosion, but also lends them immense leverage. The hard and horny shells of some tropical beetles can scarcely be pulverized with a sledge hammer.

Again, if man had the powers of springing possessed by some insects, as the flea and the grasshopper, he would have little need of trains or motors, and would be able to progress from London to Manchester in a few leaps. Man can normally jump his own length, athletically, three or four times, but to match certain springing insects he would need to cover a mile at one jump.—Dr. Frederick Graves to Chambers' Journal.

A car for her, too!

In thousands of average American homes there are now two automobiles—"a car for her, too," so there may be transportation for the family while "he" drives away to work.

And "her" car has such an infinite degree of usefulness!

Downtown shopping, taking the children to school, afternoon calls, meeting trains—and the many additional trips that must be made to and from the house as a part of every day's routine.

No other car is so admirably suited to a woman's needs as the Most Beautiful Chevrolet.

With striking new bodies by Fisher, and finished in pleasing colors of lustrous, lasting Duco, it provides in abundant measure the comfort, charm and elegance women admire in a motor car. It is easy to start because of its Delco-Remy electric starting system—famous the world over for its dependability and excellence. It is easy to stop because of powerful over-size brakes. And it is easy to drive and park because a modern three-speed transmission, smooth-acting disc clutch, and a semi-reversible steering gear that gives finger-tip steering.

And women find in Chevrolet a remarkably comfortable car. Long semi-elliptic springs extend over 88% of the wheelbase —providing easy riding over any road. The large, deeply cushioned seats are set at the most comfortable angle. Turnstedt window regulators and remote control door handles are further fine car conveniences that women admire and appreciate.

The remarkable economy of Chevrolet ownership is another vital reason for Chevrolet's wide and increasing popularity among women. Extremely low first cost, exceptionally high fuel and oil mileage and the very minimum of upkeep expense—all combine to make Chevrolet a car of outstanding economy.

Plans Ottawa to London Flight

Captain Janney, Canadian Flying Ace, Plans to Hop Off June 30 on a 3,000 Mile Non-Stop Flight.

Ottawa, June 1 (AP).—The trans-Atlantic air trail blazed by Captain Charles A. Lindbergh today lured Captain E. L. Janney, Canadian flying ace, who has announced he will hop off June 30 on a 3,000 mile non-stop flight from Ottawa to London.

Captain Janney plans to follow the same stormy north Atlantic route conquered by the "Spirit of St. Louis" although his course will be south of that taken by Lindbergh and 600 miles shorter than the New York-Paris flight.

Captain Janney said his route would be from Ottawa to Montreal, thence down the St. Lawrence river to Rimouski and then across the Gulf of St. Lawrence to Trepassy bay, N. F. From Trepassy Janney will get his bearings and head straight for the south coast of Ireland, thence to London.

Captain Janney said he would carry a radio operator who would have no part in the operation of the plane. He has not decided on the make of craft to be used, he said, although it will be a tri-motored monoplane capable of carrying ample supplies and equipment for two persons.

Janney added he would make the flight as part of Canada's jubilee celebration and hoped to arrive in London the following evening, Dominion Day. The celebration will mark the 60th anniversary of the signing of treaty which brought the provinces together under the Dominion government.

High School Concert Friday

Friday evening the combined Glee Clubs and orchestra will give a concert at the Kingston High School Auditorium at 8 o'clock. For the past term the Glee Clubs have sung many times before the student body and have been enjoyed greatly by the students and the faculty. Almost every Thursday the orchestra presents a program before the assembly. At all times they have been a welcome addition to the assembly period. George A. Webster, a new-comer to Kingston and very popular in the musical circles of the city, is preparing the treat for the public next Friday evening. Mr. Webster is the musical director of the public schools of Kingston.

Mrs. Henry Millonig will be the soloist of the evening. Mrs. Millonig is a beautiful pianist, having played and pleased the students at the regular assembly about two weeks ago.

STONE RIDGE.

Stone Ridge, June 1.—The cross roads which have been worked with a deep bed of sod are in bad condition during the rainy time, and many cars are stalled. It is hoped the day will come when gravel will replace the sod nuisance.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Lear Woodward and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Delafield of Staten Island, visited their summer home last Saturday and Sunday.

Fred Brown of High Falls will wire the house and buildings of Mr. and Mrs. Van Lear Woodward.

It is said the Prindle Homestead at Stone Ridge Heights has been sold to the city parties who will occupy it.

RECENT EVENTS IN THE AUTOMOBILE FIELD

An American car—Studebaker's Erskine Six—won the highest award and gold medal in the classic London to Land's End reliability run recently held in England. The trials were over a run of 317 1/2 miles and included a wide variety of touring conditions in addition to four difficult hill tests. The Erskine—a stock model custom sedan—performed without the slightest fault through the whole trial and received the highest number of points possible to score as well as a gold medal for perfect performance.

The Oakland Six Landau Sedan which celebrated completion of 100,000 miles run on a treadmill last winter by starting on a 15,000-mile tour of the United States, is attracting such attention on its journey that the Oakland Motor Car Company is extending its route 5,000 miles more. The announcement was made this week by W. R. Tracy, vice-president in charge of sales. The treadmill run was made in the show rooms of the Richards-Oakland Company, Detroit, in full view of the thousands passing the General Motors Building. Except for refueling and a few minor repairs, it was a non-stop run.

Sixty-seven thousand miles used from his Hupmobile Eight in 26 months, with a total cost for replacements of $15, was reported by Chester A. Large, 830 Drexel road, Upper Darby, Pa., as he turned it in the other day to Harper & Harper, Philadelphia Distributors, on the same make new car.

Price reductions on all body types of Oldsmobile six, effective June first, have been announced by Olds Motor Works, Lansing, Michigan. Reductions run as high as $115 on certain body types. In addition to the reductions in prices there has been announced front and rear bumpers as standard equipment on all body types. The addition of bumpers, together with rear view mirror on all body types, adds in value the money equivalent of from $20 to $25. With consideration of the money value of the added equipment, the reductions amount to $100 on most body types. The new prices effective June 1st are two-door sedan, $875; coupe, $875; four-door sedan, $975; deluxe roadster, $895; deluxe touring, $895; sport coupe, $965; and landau, $1075, f. o. b. More Precious and Endear-
passing year.

Let's skip a handful of years, and ask the young matron to list her wedding gifts. First to mind comes the tokens thoughtfully selected at the jewelry store. So frequently used. So proudly displayed. No one could possibly overlook them. Other and perhaps more costly gifts are forgotten or dimly remembered, but jeweled possessions, enriched with constant association become more precious with each passing year.
